PROCLAMATION DECLARING MAY AS “NATIONAL FOSTER CARE MONTH”

WHEREAS, Sutter County relies on foster homes, due to the number of troubled children found to be at risk and being removed from their own homes because of sexual abuse, physical abuse, parental absence or incapacity, or exploitation; and

WHEREAS, Sutter County recognizes that all children need love, support, security, and a safe place to call home; and

WHEREAS, Sutter County has one hundred and fifty-six (156) children in out-of-home care, including foster homes, group homes and short term residential treatment programs; and

WHEREAS, Sutter County has children placed with foster parents in the counties of Sutter, Butte, Merced, Nevada, Placer, Sacramento, Shasta, Stanislaus, Yolo and Yuba, who have opened their hearts and their homes to the children of Sutter County in times of crisis, providing a safe, loving, and supportive home environment due to their commitment to the needs of children.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Sutter County Board of Supervisors hereby declare May as “National Foster Care Month”.
